

RECENTLY ELECTED OFFICIALS MEET EAU CLAIRE BUSINESSES

Newly elected City of Eau Claire Council Member Clara Serrano speaks with Scott Rogers, Eau Claire Chamber Vice President Governmental Affairs, and Erin Klaus, one of the owners of Tangled Up In Hue and Downtown Eau Claire Incorporated executive director and communication and promotions coordinator. The Eau Claire Area Chamber of Commerce hosted a meeting to introduce recently elected local officials from the City of Eau Claire and Eau Claire County. The goal of the event is to allow business owners to connect with local officials, said Rogers. The elected officials who RSVPed to the event include council members Aaron Brewster and Clara Serrano and county board supervisors Kirk Dahl, Deirdre Jenkins, Bob Swanson, and Christy Tomczak. “I think it’s a good way to meet people in our community that are working and have a business or working for institutions that operate in this community,” said Swanson.
