OAKLEAF CLINICS RICE LAKE NOW OPEN

Keeps Trusted Local Healthcare Professionals in Rice Lake with Plans to Expand

RICE LAKE, WI – May 14, 2024 – Oakleaf Clinics today announced that it is opening a new clinic in Rice Lake with local healthcare providers Bailey Yeager, PA-C and Kaley Wilson, APNP who previously worked at Prevea Health Rice Lake which closed in April due to the HSHS/Prevea exit from the Western Wisconsin region. The new Oakleaf Clinics Rice Lake is now open at 1024 N. Main Street, Rice Lake, WI 54868.

By opening its new clinic, Oakleaf Clinics maintains access to high-quality health care in Rice Lake with the same trusted providers who have been caring for local patients for over seven years. Oakleaf Clinics Rice Lake will offer the same primary, family medicine, and women’s health care services that were available through Prevea. This is the first step in Oakleaf Clinics establishing an enduring and growing presence in the Rice Lake area.

Yeager has served the Rice Lake community for seven years.

“I am incredibly excited and grateful to be able to continue to practice in Rice Lake and help patients meet their healthcare goals and live a healthier life,” said Yeager. “I absolutely love serving this community and can’t wait to continue to improve our community’s health and wellbeing.”

Wilson, added, “I have worked closely with patients, their families and friends for over 16 years. I am a Rice Lake native and take pride in serving our community. I am thrilled to have the opportunity to work with Oakleaf Clinics, which has proved me with the ability to continue to put patients first and provide care close to home.”

“I have worked closely with Baily and Kaley throughout their time with Prevea and am excited to have them join Oakleaf Clinics as they continue to offer high quality personalized care in Rice Lake,” said Jordan Crow, MD, Oakleaf Clinics, who led the effort to open the new Rice Lake clinic. “These excellent providers will be the first of many independent clinicians Oakleaf Clinics plans to support in Rice Lake.”

Oakleaf Clinics is the largest clinic in the Oakleaf Medical Network of independent healthcare clinics with over 350 medical providers with 40 specialties in Western Wisconsin.
